CLASS DESCRIPTIONS:

ADULT & TEEN PIANO
The Community Music School-Detroit offers four levels of Adult Group Piano in an enjoyable and sociable setting:

- Adult & Teen Group Piano Beginning
  The class focus is for adults with little or no previous experience playing piano, which provides an introduction to the fundamentals of piano technique and music theory. In a hands-on piano lab group setting, students will be introduced to keyboard orientation, music reading, and notation.

- Adult Group Piano Intermediate
  A continuation from Beginning Adult Group Piano I. Pre-requisite: one semester of CMS-D group piano and the ability to read music.

- Adult Group Piano Advanced
  A continuation from Beginning Adult Group Piano II. Pre-requisite: two semesters of CMS-D group piano and the ability to read music.

ADULT GUITAR
Adults can learn beginning or intermediate guitar in a small group environment that also provides individualized instruction.

- Guitar Beginning
  Class focus is learning basic guitar techniques including chords, strumming, single note melodies, and some reading. The interests of the class are considered concerning musical style and overall interests.

- Bass Beginning & Advanced
  The class will focus on a range of basis techniques used in modern electric bass playing. Some techniques include. Root bass lines, walking bass lines, and riffs in a variety of styles.

ADULT STRINGS
CMS-Detroit String Ensembles are for adults who would like to learn to play a string instrument (violin, viola, cello) for the first time, or return to play with a focus on fundamentals.

NEW HORIZONS BAND & JAZZ COMBO (17 years – adults)
The New Horizons Band class is for adults who wish to learn to play a band instrument (brass, wind, percussion) for the first time or relearn an instrument. The New Horizons Band provides a relaxed and fun learning environment. The NHB band class performs several concerts during the school year.

MUSIC THERAPY - Music Therapy clinical services are by appointment. Please call (313) 578-9719. Music therapists provide treatment for a variety of conditions ranging from stress to severe handicaps. Services are offered to individuals of all ages and abilities. Services are offered in individual or group settings, as appropriate for the client's needs and abilities.

Opportunities for music education and music therapy are available to people of all ages with special needs. Through music programming at CMS, individuals with special needs have found joy, new friendships, and have made progress in the acquisition of motor, verbal, communication, and social skills through music.

Musical talent or training is not prerequisites for acceptance into the music therapy program. Experiences are geared to the specific functioning levels, interests, and clinical needs of the persons enrolled in the therapy. Treatment is provided by professional therapists who have training, experience, and certification in the field of music therapy. For more information about music therapy, please contact Jody Conradi Stark at starkjo2@msu.edu.
