

Community Music School-Detroit MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

The MSU Community Music School-Detroit (CMS-D), an outreach unit of the MSU College of Music, provides high-quality music education and music therapy services for all ages, abilities and incomes.

Through sequential music study, CMS-D builds 21st century life skills in urban youth and fills a unique niche in the local music education landscape. Lessons are offered at subsidized prices and financial aid is available to those with need. Instruments are loaned at no cost to registered youth through CMS-D's "Lonely Instruments in Need of Kids" program.

Enrollment in 2018-19

3,173

Registrations since 2009

13,831

MSU Investment since 2009

$3 million

Number of weekly classes

60+

PROGRAMS FOR ALL AGES

Early Childhood Music
Pre-Aspiring Musicians
Singing Sprouts
Aspiring Musicians Program (AMP): All Instruments & Voice
Verses: Exploring Literacy through Lyrics & Song (free)
Learn to be a Vocal Soloist
AMP Pop Chorale
Spartan Youth Jazz
Spartan Youth Jazz Orchestra
Adult Band Ensembles
Adult Strings, Piano, Guitar & Bass classes
AMP Summer Camp
Groove-in-a-Week Summer Camp
Spartan Jazz Summer Boot Camp
The Metro Detroit Jazz Summer Workshop
Verses Summer Camp (free)
Funk Summer Camp
Music & Movement Therapy Clinical Services
Private Lessons

The MSU Detroit Center
3408 Woodward
Detroit, MI 48201
www.cms.msu.edu/detroit

For more information please contact Jill Woodward, CMS-D Director: (313) 578-9717

M&MFisher
Max M. & Marjorie S. Fisher Foundation

MARSHALL MATHERS FOUNDATION

THE KRESGE FOUNDATION

KNIGHT FOUNDATION

DRESNER FOUNDATION

D'Addario Foundation

College of Music
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Special Opportunities for Detroit Youth

- Tuition assistance up to 100% based on financial need
- Free AMP Theory class: Behind the Music
- Hip Hop Tots – free for Detroit social service locations serving babies and toddlers
- Verses: Exploring Literacy through Lyrics & Song, free for Detroit youth ages 10 to 16
- Free Saturday bus service through community partners in Highland Park and Southwest Detroit
- Free tutoring